

CARLISLE'S VIEWS ARE PUT FORWARDTHE TREASURY REPORT HAS BEEN ISSUED.

The Secretary Favors Note Issues by State Banks Under Proper Safeguards—Plans For a Large Use of Silver—Extols the Wilson Bill—Other Recommendations Made.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The annual report of the secretary of the treasury on the state of the finances was sent to congress yesterday. It shows that the revenues of the government from all sources for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1894, were $372,502,498 and the expenditures $442,605,758, which shows a deficit of $69,803,260. As compared with the fiscal year 1893 the receipts for 1894 fall of $88,914,063. During the year there was a decrease of $15,952,674 in the ordinary expenditures of the government.

The secretary thinks there are now too many ports of entry, and they should be abolished and the districts consolidated. He wants $100,000 for the enforcement of the Chinese exclusion act, and expresses great dissatisfaction with the workings of the Behring sea tribunal.

On the subject of currency reform, after explaining the urgency which necessitated the recent issuance of bonds, the secretary recommends that, in the interest of the government and people, power be conferred upon the secretary of the treasury to negotiate loans at a lower rate of interest and for a shorter time than are now allowed.

Concerning the necessity of redemption in coin the report says: "So long as there are in circulation under the government two coins unequal in value, but equal in legal tender qualities, every consideration of good faith and sound policy requires the prompt redemption of the notes on presentation in the kind of coin demanded by the holder and the constant observance of such administrative methods as may be necessary to preserve the purchasing power of the less valuable metal." The secretary advocates the abolition of these three features of the present law:

1. The circulation of United States notes as currency and their current redemption in coin on demand.
2. The compulsory reissue of such notes after redemption.
3. The excessive accumulation and coinage of silver and the issue of notes and certificates against it upon a ratio which greatly overvalues the metal as compared with the standard unit of value in this and the other principal commercial countries.

"Frequent issues of bonds for the purpose of procuring gold, which can not be kept after it has been obtained, will certainly cause increased distrust among our own people, as well as among the people of other countries, and not only swell the volume of our securities returning from abroad, for sale or redemption, but increase the withdrawal of foreign capital heretofore invested in our domestic enterprises.

"Ordinarily, when there is no distrust of our currency or other discouraging influence, a considerable part of the interest and dividends earned by foreign capital in this country is annually or semi-annually reinvested, and this, together with the fact that under normal conditions the balance of trade is in our favor, enables our people to meet their obligations abroad without reducing their stock of money at home.

"But when distrust arises, either as to our ability to pay or as to the value of the money with which we intend to pay, the foreign capitalist not only ceases to reinvest, but proceeds to withdraw all his money by disposing of his American securities in order to protect both capital and income against threatened depreciation. There are but two ways in which this withdrawal can be effected; one is for our people to export and sell their commodities in foreign markets to a sufficient amount to create a balance of credit in their favor equal to the amount to be withdrawn, and the other is to ship gold, that being the only money recognized in the settlement of international balances."

The secretary advocates the absolute retirement of the government from the business of issuing or reissuing circulating notes, declaring the system to be a failure. As a substitute he offers a plan which is practically that advocated by the bankers at their convention in Baltimore, and known as the Baltimore plan. He speaks most forcibly in favor of the abolition of the tax on state banks, saying that in his opinion the law providing for such tax is unconstitutional.

In order to provide a wider field for the active circulation of our silver coins and certificates, which now constitute about one fifth of the entire volume of our currency and to protect the treasury as far as possible against the accumulation of certificates returned in payment of customs and other dues to the government, it is proposed that no national bank note of a less denomination than $10 shall be issued. This, the secretary thinks, judging from past history of other nations, would be what the country needs.

On the subject of revenue reform the report advocates a tariff sufficient only for the needs of the revenue the government requires. It extols the Wilson bill as the measure needed, and declares in favor of free raw materials. In conclusion the report says: "The Wilson act, while it places upon the free list a considerable part of most important raw materials used in our manufacture, left iron and lead ores and bituminous coal, together with several other articles of less consequence, still dutiable, thus not only failing to put in force a consistent system of revenue reform but leaving some of our most valuable industries at a great disadvantage as compared with their rivals differently located." Admitting that there are some defects in the bill which should be immediately corrected, the secretary thinks the measure amply redeems the promises made by democratic leaders and platforms.

HOGG AFTER ROCKEFELLER.

Threatens to Follow Him All Over America and Across the Ocean.

AUSTIN, Texas, Dec. 5.—Gov. Hogg has heard nothing of his requisitions on the governors of New York and Missouri for the arrest of William and Henry Rockefeller and other Standard Oil magnates for violating the Texas anti-trust law, although it is known the requisitions have reached the governors for whom intended. He says he will follow the men into every state in the Union, and across the ocean if necessary to bring them to justice.

Some farmers have examined their dead cattle and find their lungs have been completely destroyed.

THE DIFFERENTIAL
MAY BE REPEALEDSENATOR QUAY INTRODUCED
THE BILL TO-DAY.

It Provides for the Removal of the One-Eighth Cent Provision, and Was Referred to the Finance Committee—Senator Blanchard's Bill Went Over—The House Business.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Senator Quay this morning offered a resolution repealing the one-eighth cent differential on sugar and the matter was referred to the financial committee. When the senate convened yesterday there were few traces of the confusion attending the opening of congress Monday. The usual dignity and serenity of the chamber was restored, there was the usual scattered and shifting attendance in the galleries, and the senators showed their desire to enter without delay upon the business of the session. A large number of bills, petitions and memorials were presented, most of them of a local character. Senator Blanchard offered a resolution rectifying the circumstances under which the sugar bounty was cut off after the sugar crop for 1894 was put in. It directed the committee on appropriations to include in the urgency deficiency bill a sum sufficient to pay the bounty for the present year. The resolution went over for the present. Senator Vest offered an amendment to the rules, with a view of cutting off protracted debates in the senate. It provides that after a measure has been debated thirty days it will be in order for any senator to move to fix a day for the final vote. This motion is to put without debate or delay, and if carried the original question is to be voted on at the time fixed. Senator Vest said he would address the senate to-day on the need of this reformatory rule.

Senator Lodge offered a resolution, which was adopted without dissent, calling on the secretary of the navy for the official letters of Admiral Walker while in command of the United States naval vessels at Hawaii. Senator Lodge raised another international question by a resolution calling on the President for the correspondence concerning Bluefields and for information concerning the attitude of Nicaragua. The resolution was adopted without dissent. Senator Quay offered resolutions of respect to the memory of Myron B. Wright, late a member of congress from Pennsylvania, and as a further mark of respect to the deceased moved that the senate adjourn. At 12:35 p. m. the senate adjourned and the democratic senators went into caucus. It is understood that the caucus was called to consider the question of a general program of policy with reference to the various subjects of general interest on the calendar, including the supplementary tariff bills, the Nicaragua canal, anti-opium, bankruptcy and territorial admission bills.

DOWN TO BUSINESS.

House Passes a Resolution and Proceeds to Consider Bills.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—There were exactly 100 members on the floor by actual count when the house met yesterday. The galleries were almost empty. The democratic leaders had decided to plunge immediately into routine business. On motion of Mr. Storer (rep.) of Ohio, a resolution extending the time allowed the board of engineers to survey canal routes through the state of Ohio under the river and harbor bill was adopted. Mr. Outhwaite, from the committee on military affairs, called up a bill for the relief of the legal representatives of Arsenus P. Boyd, late of the Eighth United States cavalry, but it was ruled out on a point of order, and he called up the bill for the dedication of the Chickamauga and Chattanooga National park. The bill appropriates $20,000.

Mr. Black of Illinois Mr. Wheeler and of Alabama, with himself, had undertaken to look after the bill. Options on the land in writing for an average of $12 an acre had been secured, whereas the Chickamauga park had cost an average of $28. The bill provides for a commission of three, to be appointed from the armies of the Tennessee, Ohio and Mississippi. After the adoption of an amendment reducing the appropriation to $75,000 the bill was passed. Mr. Richardson of Tennessee then presented the conference report on the printing bill.

The report was vigorously attacked by Mr. Dunn of New Jersey on the ground that the bill would clothe the joint committee on printing with inordinate power. The report went over and the house adjourned.

SHANGHAI, Dec. 5.—It is rumored that the armistice between China and Japan today had arranged troubles a trice or only although according to advices received from an excellent authority the negotiations for peace between China and Japan are not making as rapid strides as supposed. It seems certain that Japan intends to insist upon stronger and more tangible proofs of China's submission before talking of peace.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S REPORT

Much of It Devoted to Federal Action During Pullman Strike.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The attorney-general's annual report to congress was made public yesterday. Mr. Olney devotes several pages of his report to the Pullman strike, defending the course of the department of justice in that connection. The strike at Chicago, he says, so far as it involved the obstruction of United States mails and the paralysis of interstate commerce, was practically broken when the United States troops reached that city, and, being broken at Chicago, was in reality broken everywhere else. The rest of his report is practically of no importance. He makes no new suggestions as to the affairs of the Union Pacific company.

Testimony Tends to Exonerate Col. Coit in Militia Trial.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 5.—The court of inquiry investigating the conduct of Col. Coit at Washington Court House convened yesterday and examined a large number of witnesses in behalf of the citizens. They agreed that Columbus soldiers were drinking and a number were drunk on the day of the shooting, but all the Washington soldiers were teetotalers. The majority of witnesses said they did not believe Col. Coit was intoxicated.

Want the Indians Removed.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Dec. 5.—A delegation consisting of five citizens of San Juan county, Utah, called upon Gov. West yesterday to urge that immediate action be taken toward the removal of the Ute Indians from the county. The Indians are defiant and well armed. The white settlers have decided to make an attack on them on the 15th of the month unless they are removed sooner. The governor promised them all the assistance within his power.

NAPERVILLE, Ill., Dec. 5.—The United Evangelical conference yesterday was presided over by Bishop C. S. Haman of Reading, Pa. JAMES C. REED IS HANGED

His Dual Life Was More Strange Than That of Mr. Hyde.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—James Canham Read, one of the most remarkable criminals ever run down by the police of Scotland Yard, was hanged yesterday in the jail at Springfield, near Chelmsford. The crime for which he suffered the death penalty was the murder of Miss Florence Denis, a very beautiful young woman, who, like three others of her kind, had fallen a victim to the wiles of the scoundrel only to be murdered by him afterward when he found that she might become troublesome. The story of Read's life reads like one of the romances.

JAMES CANHAM READ.

of Du Boisgobey, with this difference, that, bold as he was with his material, the French writer would not ask any reader to accept the probability of the tale. Read was convicted of the murder of Miss Denis on Nov. 15 Chelmsford. He did not know when he was to be hanged owing to the new rule recently promulgated by the home office. At a late hour during the night he was awakened and told to make ready for his execution. Edgerton Green, the high sheriff, refused to allow members of the press to be present at the execution, and also declined to give out any information concerning the culprit's conduct during the last moments or even about the matter of a confession, which it was believed he would make before passing to his death. The procession to the scaffold was led by High Sheriff Green and Under Sheriff O'Geep.

The murder of Miss Dennis discloses a life history that was confessed by the detectives of Scotland Yard to be without parallel in the records of that office. When the light began to dawn on the career of the man not only London but the entire country was amazed and startled, and the people followed the case with minds prepared for almost any revelation within the range of the possible. And, although it was a fact that the conviction was made on evidence that was purely circumstantial, and the further fact that the accused and his brother both swore that Read was 100 miles away from the scene of the murder at the time it was done, ninety-nine out of every hundred persons at all familiar with the case had made up their minds that the man was really guilty.

BLAZE AT OMAHA, NEB.

Exposition Hall Is Destroyed—Hoyt's Company's Loss Is Heavy.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 5.—Yesterday fire broke out in the Exposition hall, covering three-quarters of a block on Capitol avenue, and totally destroyed it, together with the First Baptist church on Davenport street.

The Exposition building was partially occupied by the Fifteenth Street theater. This is the theater which was burned two years ago on Farnum street. Hoyt's "Bunch of Keys" company was playing an engagement and that company's loss is heavy. The fire was discovered in the rear of the store of John Lally at 5:15 and in fifteen minutes from that time the whole exposition building was a mass of flames. The flames spread so rapidly that not a thing was saved from any of the stores in the exposition building or the theater. The total loss is estimated at $175,000, with insurance probable about one half.

SENSATIONAL TESTIMONY.

Witness Swears He Has Been Paid $1,200 for Staying Away.

MUSKOGON, Mich., Dec. 5.—The elasm of the lumber firm of Montgomery, Champagne & Co. against the Muskegon Booming company, which has been twice tried in the Circuit court, and twice been sent back by the Supreme court, has brought out some sensational features. The claim is for $30,000. A booming company tug is alleged to have set fire to the plaintiff's lumber and docks, it being claimed that the tug was not provided with a spark arrester. About this case has revolved. Secretary Lange of the company was tried for contempt of court in spitting a witness away who was to have testified that the tug did not have a spark arrester. Yesterday Edward Bennett, another witness who says he was also spirited away, returned and swore that the men instrumental in affecting his absence since the trial of the case were Paul Lange, brother of Secretary Lange, who had an office in Chicago, and Detective Brakeman of the Booming company. He says altogether they have paid him $1,200. He swears that the tug was unprovided with a spark arrester.

Ives Away in the Lead.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Ives took a lead in the balk line billiard match at Central Music hall last night which practically insures him the match. He made the 600 points necessary to complete the night's play while Schaefer was making 206, and his total for two nights is therefore 1,300 against Schaefer's 619. The score by innings:

Ives—39, 30, 2, 2, 44, 58, 5, 167, 0, 37, 30, 6, 129, 1. Total, 600.

Schaefer—1, 24, 36, 1, 18, 9, 47, 10, 11, 12, 16, 6, 6. Total, 206.

Averages—Ives, 42 12-14; Schaefer, 15 11-13.

High runs—Ives, 167; Schaefer, 36.

Grand totals—Ives, 1,300; Schaefer, 619.

Kolb Still Struggling.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 5.—R. F. Kolb, who claims to be governor of Alabama, has completed a message to the legislature, which he signs as governor, and which will be transmitted to that body to-day. The message is a long and in many respects revolutionary document, as it recommends that his followers do not pay their taxes for a while. He also advises tax collectors to delay payments of state taxes into the treasury. Thirty-eight of the sixty-six tax collectors in the state are Kolbites.

Alleged Safe Crackers Arrested.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 5.—The Bureau county authorities by arrests made yesterday believe they have broken up the gang that has been cracking safes and robbing station houses, bars and business houses along the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad from La Salle to Rock Island the last two months. One of the men confessed, implicating others. Those arrested are Wilson McMillan, Charles Conroy and Jean Hartnell. Over $9,000 worth of property has been destroyed or carried off by robbers, supposed to be this gang.

"GEN. DOUGH" BAKED BY MANY EDITORS

BOWER CITY'S ILLUSTRIOUS SOLDIER ROUNDLY SCORED.

Madison Democrat, Which Originally Called Him "Jough Dough," Says His Military Aspirations Are an Insult to the State, While the Sentinel Says "He Wears Lugs."

General Joseph Bidwell Doe of Janesville, Wisconsin, who promises to soon be the whole army of the country on account of the insubordination of his subordinates such as General Schofield and Secretary Lamont, seems to be cordially disliked by all the newspapers. Washington and New York papers have given him fits as has also the independent Chicago Record. The Madison Democrat, the paper that originally christened him "Jough Dough" and the Milwaukee Sentinel contribute the two latest "roasts." The Democrat says:

"The report is again current that 'Gen.' Doe will be appointed judge advocate general of the army—a life position with big pay. The appointment lies with the president. The entire state of Wisconsin would be scandalized by the elevation of 'Gen.' Doe to such a dignity, for our people cannot forget the shocking part he played in the notorious roster rascality."

"It was probably this 'Gen.' Doe who hatched the whole plot—at least this appears to be the fact—from the evidence of Gov. Peck through which the name of 'Gen.' Doe occurs more frequently than that of any other person connected with the job unless exception be made in 'favor' of Attorney General O'Connor. But 'Gen.' Doe's most scandalous connection with the case is found in his own answer to the complaint made against him as one of the alleged conspirators."

In an Insult to Wisconsin. "In that formal document he swore that he was not aware that the state had a contract with The Democrat company to do the state printing, yet it was proved by the testimony of the assistant secretary of state and the state printing clerk that 'Gen.' Doe obtained in person from the state department a copy of that contract about the time the roster steal was incubating and that he personally returned it to that department! The proof of all this is clear and positive—and yet the report comes that 'Wisconsin friends of J. B. Doe are exerting all their influence to get him appointed judge advocate general of the army.' A greater insult to the people of Wisconsin could not well be imagined than would lie in the promotion of 'Gen.' Doe to the life position which he no doubt covets and if his 'Wisconsin friends' shall succeed in persuading the president to appoint him it is to be hoped that condemnation may be defeated in the senate."

"Honest democrats, honest republicans and honest citizens should unite to prevent the impending disgrace. Sentinel Says 'Fear Not.'"

The Sentinel article goes off on another tack and says:

"If things are as things are said to be folks might just as well cease holding their breath in suspense while waiting to hear what the fate of Joey Doe is to be. However anxious the higher powers at Washington may be to get rid of him as assistant Secretary of war, it hardly seems likely they would give him a life appointment to a fat office in order to do it. And, moreover, word comes from Washington from Mr. Doe himself that he has never even thought of making application for the place for which he has been mentioned."

They do say, though, that the relations between Daniel Lamont, the head of the war department when he is in Washington, and Mr. Doe is not the acting head, are not of the most cordial kind. It was told by some recent visitors from the national capital that Colonel Lamont is frequently greatly exasperated concerning the actions of his assistant. Colonel Lamont is an ex-newspaper man and realizes what a help or hindrance—as the case may be—the press is to the rise of a man in public life. Veteran Had an Answer.

"During the absence of the secretary of war in New York or elsewhere his assistant has been raising the very dickens with the newspaper men and securing the enmity of pretty much the whole lot, and of course the curse falls on the whole department, and Colonel Daniel is much vexed therewith. "And report says that it is getting so that the old war dogs, with titles earned in battle with rebels or redskins, who are in charge of bureaus in the war department, don't like the ways of the young man at all. If he was on the other side of the building in the navy department the sea-dogs would say that he carried too many lugs. A short time ago the assistant secretary became angered at some news that had been given out from one of the bureaus, and with much wrath stalked into the presence of the bureau chief, who has gray hair and a title that permits him to wear a star on his shoulder."

"By what authority," demanded the irate assistant secretary, "did you give out this information?"

"By the authority of common sense," was the quick response, and that ended the incident.

"No, it is not most probable that Joey Doe will be appointed to a position in the army over the heads of regular army officers."

"WE're long" on handsome Christmas slippers. We bought heavy, we bought cheap; we bought for cash; we know we have the inside on the boys, just the same as the rubber deal. Come on boys, name your prices; we are spoiling to cut them. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

ON Wednesday evening of this week December 5, the Silver Leaf club will give a benefit dance for Arthur E. Badger, the victim of the recent Monterey cotton mill accident. Smith's orchestra will play and the public is invited. The cause is a deserving one and the patronage should be large.

We hit it hard this time. We never trifle with prices. Just think, Vanderpool coal $4.50 per ton. We can give you a good soft coal for $2 per ton. If you want good coal cheap come and see us. Why, several good reliable parties came to our office and told us that our roller screened No. 4 and range are worth $1 per ton more than coal handled the old way.

Catarrrh starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat, and is in fact, the general enemy of the mucous membrane. Neglected colds in the head almost invariably precede catarrrh, causing an excessive flow of mucus, and if the mucous discharge becomes interrupted the disagreeable results of catarrrh will follow, such as bad breath, severe pain across forehead and about eyes, a roaring and buzzing sound in the ears and oftentimes a very offensive discharge. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles.

SANG AND TALKED IN GOD'S BEHALF

CHENEY EVANGELISTS BEGIN THEIR WORK HERE.

An Audience That Filled the Baptist Church, Greeted Them Last Night. Rev. Merrill a Pleasing and Forceful Speaker, While the Gospel Quartet Do Their Work Well.

Preaching that reaches the heart; music that deepens the impression and makes the soil fallow for the falling seed. These are the elements of the evangelistic work begun in Janesville by the Cheney Gospel Quartette and Rev. C. F. Merrill at the Baptist church last night. A song service led by Mr. Porter the leader of the quartette was the opening feature and the song were sung with a will. Prayer by Rev. Dr. Hodge followed in which he called for the Divine guidance of the work and asked for its success. Rev. Cheney, whose beard and hair has been whitened in the service of his Maker next arose. There was little to be told beforehand, he said "but we are here to keep you" he added "and if anyone wishes to purchase the book of songs that we sing they can be secured as you leave the church." That notice should be given to everyone and that everyone should be invited to come was Rev. S. P. Wilder's suggestion and when he finished Rev. C. F. Merrill arose. The evangelist is a pleasant featured man with coal black hair and beard and is possessed of a sonorous voice of depth and power which he uses to a good advantage. He is quick and decisive in his way and a pleasant speaker.

Meetings Afternoons and Evenings.

"When we are filled with the joy of God is the time we can do God's work," he said. "We have come here to help you," he continued, "in doing God's work and our business is to sing and preach God's word and we hope this, with your prayers, will save souls."

He then said that meetings would be held every afternoon and evening except Saturday afternoon, and that the afternoon meetings would be held in the lecture room. He wanted everyone to plan to be at the meetings and to bring others. In the meetings he wanted all to take part.

"If you can sing, sing; but if you cannot don't try; it's awful," he continued. Music by the quartet which is composed of Messrs. Porter, Olds, Broughton and Williams, all of whom have excellent voices, prefaced the remarks that followed. When they finished Rev. Mr. Merrill went on. Perfect wisdom and perfect power were necessary to sinners in any work he said and as God possessed these qualities His work was a success. He never made mistakes and the decisions were binding. In church matters supreme authority appeared in several forms and in the law it was the supreme court. There was a supreme authority in everything which was successful.

"A minister had just pronounced a couple 'one'," he said.

"Which one?" asked the groom.

"I do not know," answered the minister "that is for you to find out."

Bible Was Condensed Truth.

The bible he said was either condensed truth or condensed lies, but as it contained some admitted truths it must be condensed truth. Robert G. Ingersoll, he said, would close his eyes and swear that the sun didn't shine, but honest men admitted it. The countries that knew most about the bible were the most prosperous; those that knew the least the most degraded. The book is full of predictions most of which had been carried out to the letter, which proved that it was the word of God.

"It contains all that we need to know concerning spiritual work," he continued, "when people cannot understand it they refuse to believe, thereby limiting the power of the God. The labor question, the temperance question and all other problems are going to be settled by God's word," he continued, "and they will not be settled until that does settle them."

He drew a lesson of loyalty from the "Charge of the Light Brigade," and said that the spirit shown by the "nob six hundred" was the true spirit for the servant of the Lord.

"Build upon the bible, and cling to the word of God," were the closing sentences, and his earnest way and unreserved manner, convinced his audience, and it filled the church, that he had the faith in his calling that insures the returns. The meetings will continue afternoon and evening, and there will be accommodations and a hearty welcome for all who desire to attend them.

NEW FROM SURROUNDING TOWNS

Happenings at Emerald Grove.

EMERALD GROVE, Dec. 4.—Farmers in this neighborhood are marketing their grain at Shopiere station. The price seems to be more satisfactory than at other points. A. E. Joiner, of Rockwell, Iowa, was a caller last week. He reports a fair business in his town. A horse and carriage owned by Brayton Smith, of Bradford Center, got loose from the church sheds here Sunday, and took a run all to himself. The carriage was distributed along the road as far as E. N. Ransom's place, where the horse was afterward captured in a wire fence. The fine hard roads are appreciated by everybody these days since the ground has frozen. Considerable teaming has been done. Corn husking is over with for 1894 and fall work completed except in a few cases. Another lot of Jefferson boots and shoes just received by Gillies & Jones. Their patrons appreciate good goods. The usual family gatherings on Thanksgiving took place last Thursday and many a fat turkey and goose had his bones picked to a finish. Do not forget the date of the match social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Inman's this week Friday evening. R. G. Inman and Will Duthie each shipped a car of hogs to the Chicago market this week.

Fairfield News Notes.

FAIRFIELD, Dec. 4.—The pastor of the M. E. church at Clinton gave an interesting address at this place Sunday afternoon, Rev. Howarth also of Clinton assisted in the exercises. The young people will give an oyster supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dykeman on Tuesday evening, December 11. Everybody invited. Jessie Putnam has a large force of carpenters at work on his new barn and the neighbors do not bow. Mr. and Mrs. James Plantz of Emerald Grove worshiped at this place last Sunday. Miss Bertha Clark is spending the week with her uncle C. H. Serl at Delavan. B. Conroy has a fine line of fur overcoats which he is selling at bottom prices.

Beloit Township Personals.

BELOIT TOWNSHIP, Dec. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward James entertained company from Janesville on Sunday. Everything in this vicinity passed off very quietly on Thanksgiving. Mrs. Bowen and children spent Thanksgiving and the remainder of the week with relatives in Fulton. Corn husking is nearly all finished now with the exception of the shocked corn, which is mostly as yet, in the field. Miss Ora Smith of Janesville is the guest of Miss Julia Luon.

More Seven Button Wonders.

There has perhaps been more strife about this shoe than any other shoe ever offered for sale in the city. Its a beauty and truly a wonder, and the cause of all the strife is, its just $1.02 cheaper than another shoe in the neighborhood. Both shoes are made by one of our local factories, but we buy for cash and work on a closer margin. Its just the same throughout our entire store.

FARM SWEEP CLEAN OF GRAIN AND HAY

BAD FIRE IN THE TOWN OF LA PRAIRIE YESTERDAY.

Herman Lapke, a Tenant on Henry Corbin's Farm, Lost All His Season's Crops, with no Insurance—All the Buildings Except the House Were Totally Destroyed.

Fire swept everything except the house from Henry Corbin's farm in the town of LaPrairie and left the tenant, Herman Lapke almost penniless. Every ounce of grain that represented his season's hard toil was swept away and he had no insurance. The farm is owned by Henry Corbin, who is now in New York and was rented to Mr. Lapke. The fire was discovered late yesterday afternoon and nothing could be done to stay it. It laid the land bare of all buildings, except the house, the horses and stock being rescued with difficulty. Five or six hundred bushels of corn that he had raised as well as two hundred bushels of barley and about four hundred tons of hay were destroyed. The buildings destroyed were the corn crib, stables and cow barns.

"Mr. Corbin can stand the loss," said J. E. Gleason this morning, "but it falls hard on Mr. Lapke who had no insurance and is a hard working man. I have just telegraphed Mr. Corbin for him. Lapke lost everything he raised."

THAT'S QUEER!

You say a collar and cuff that are waterproof?

Yes. And perspiration will not affect them?

Yes. And when dirty you need only wipe them off with a wet cloth or sponge?

Yes. Wonderful! How are they made?

A linen collar covered on both sides with waterproof "CELLULOID." Looks exactly like a linen collar.

Is it the only waterproof collar and cuff made?

No, but it is the only one made with the linen interlining and consequently the only one that can give entire satisfaction, because it is the best.

How can I know that I get the right kind?

Because every piece is stamped as follows:

TRADE MARK.
CELLULOID

Inquire for that and refuse anything else, or you will be disappointed.

Suppose my dealer does not have them?

He probably has, but if not, send direct to us, enclosing amount. Collars 25c., Cuffs 50c. State size, and whether collar wanted is stand-up or turned-down.

BICYCLING COSTUMES.

Something New, Neat, Handsome and Safe For Ladies.

The woman bicyclist is now so ubiquitous and so respectfully recognized by the public that the subject of her attire holds quite as important a place in fashion periodicals as does that of other varieties of costume. Bloomers and divided skirts are rapidly gaining in favor in America, although they are not accepted with the wholesale enthusiasm that Paris accorded them, nor are they made so fancifully, nor of colors so conspicuous as French taste demands. A late model, not yet copied in the United States, is of light gray cloth. The trousers, which end just below the knee, are accordion plaited, the lower edge being gathered in a close band. Black silk stockings and gray shoes, with buckles, complete the lower part of this startling toilet, while a gray figaro, a pink shirt and a black tie clothe the upper woman. It is a question, however, if bright color and bizarre style are any more appropriate in the costume of the bicyclist than in that of the horseback rider.

A well known physician of Brooklyn, a woman highly esteemed both professionally and personally, has a word to say on the subject of bicycling for women. She considers the exercise beneficial, when taken in moderation, and frequently recommends it to her patients, but finds that many women object to riding, not on moral grounds nor because of its growing association with trousers as an article of feminine apparel, but because they consider the back view of a lady perched on a wheel awkward and undignified. The narrow saddle causes the fold of the rider's lower garment, whether it be skirt or trousers, to fall ungracefully, and this is held by a certain proportion of women as sufficient reason for refusing to ride. The doctor suggests that this objection may be done away with by the adoption of a "out-away coat as part of the rider's costume, the back of the coat being made long enough to fall over and conceal the saddle, but to just clear the rear wheel. If a coat is found to be too warm or otherwise undesirable, a peplum may be worn instead, short in front, where it fastens, and gradually increasing to the required length at the back.

WORK AND WORRY.

Why Good Housekeepers Grow Old Early. Becoming Dress a Restorative.

A professional-giver of good advice to women says:

"More than half of a home keeping woman's time is spent in worrying and a good share of the other half in preparing food, as though the stomach were the immortal part of us. Take one-quarter of the time a woman devotes to making pies, preparing puddings, putting up preserves, baking cakes and frying, etc., and let her devote it to rest and recreation, and she would not look like a shred of parchment paper at 40."

This is perfectly true—trifely so—but what is the use of saying it? The majority of women do not overwork nor overworry from choice. Anxieties, being forced upon them, must be thought of, while the husband and family are the ones for whose sake the housekeeper wears herself out in the kitchen and are the ones who complain at any falling off in the variety of the bill of fare. A woman catering for herself alone never yet afforded an awful example of abnormal devotion to the cooking stove. The sacrifice by fire is forced upon the housekeeper by her position, and it is hardly fair to assume that she labors from sheer willfulness. The reason that women of moderate means who remain in the conventional "woman's sphere" grow old early is because they are burdened with a thousand petty troubles, small individually, but killing in the aggregate. It is like being stung to death by gnats, yet each separate gnat is despicably little. A heavy misfortune, such as wins the sympathy of the world, may be borne with dignity and at last lived down without marking the face with careworn lines or shattering the nerves. It is the innumerable petty trials, experienced daily for year after year, that grind away youth, beauty, bright wits and health, and no amount of sermonizing to the victim will do away with this state of things.

Fortunately there are many women who have leisure to be beautiful and fashionable. Today's sketch shows a gown for one of this favored class. It is of dull heliotrope bengaline. The bell skirt has a wide band of caracul around the foot. The round, double breasted corsage is entirely of fur and is fastened by four large steel buttons. The balloon sleeve of bengaline has a long tight cuff and a deep fur epaulet. Wide black satin ribbon forms the girdle.

BUYING APPLES IN MAINE.

It Needs a Sharp and Clever Man to Detect Tricks of Trade.

"The apple buyers have to be fellows who can see through a millstone," says one of the Maine fraternity. "We do not often get taken in, for there's a sort of mental telegraphy that tells us when to investigate, and that's what I mean by 'seeing through a millstone.' I was taken in once, though, by a man who brought seventeen barrels a dozen miles and looked me calmly in the eyes as he assured me quietly they were all A1 in size and quality. I looked one barrel all through, and as they were all right my mental alarm bell remained quiet. So I paid him a first-class price and he went off with his money. In less than ten minutes, having occasion to move one of the other barrels, a loose heading dropped out and the contents rolled upon the floor, displaying as mean a piece of deception as it was ever my lot to see. "There were good apples at the ends, but the middle part was good for nothing. I examined the other barrels and found everyone except that I looked through at first a rank fraud. I went for the seller before he had time to leave town and made him pay back the money and take his apples home with him. You can bet I notified all the other buyers in that part of Maine, and now that man can't sell a peck of potatoes without its being well looked over beforehand."

NEWS FOR A POLICEMAN.

Thought He Could Fool the Boy, But He Got Left.

The policeman had been standing on the corner for about ten minutes, and a foxy-looking boy sitting on a near-by doorstep was watching him. The boy's curiosity overcame him at last, and he sidled along up to the officer.
 "I say, Mr. Copper," he said at a safe distance, "what are you standing on this corner for?"
 "That's my business," he replied, curtly.
 "Well, you seem to be 'tendin' to it," ventured the boy.
 "That's what I'm paid for."
 "Alle samee," chirped the lad.
 "I know what you're standing there for."

"I'll give you a nickel if you'll tell me," bantered the officer as he held a coin out to the kid.
 "Throw it to me," said the boy, keeping his distance, warily.
 "Not much. You tell me what I'm standing here for and I'll give it to you."

The boy came up close enough to reach the coin. "You're standin' here for ten minutes," he said, with a grab at the money, and the officer chased him in vain.

HE CAUGHT ON.

And It Was Only His First Lesson in Talking Slang.

"But you Eastern people are so conventional," said the Western beauty to a Boston young man who was regarding her with half-fearful admiration. "Your language is so unpicturesque. Now, I think our slang is delightful; it is most suggestive, don't you know. You can express ever so much more than you would dare to say in ordinary parlance," she continued, coquettishly.
 "Oh, do talk slang to me, then," begged the youth, fatuously.
 "Oh, come off the freight," she responded, with a charming smile.
 "What?" he answered quite bewildered.
 "Get on the passenger, do," she continued laughingly.

"I haven't an idea what you mean," he exclaimed, despairingly.
 "Why, I only wanted to say that you were too slow," she exclaimed, wickedly.
 "Look out for yourself," he cried at last, "catching on." "I am on the express."

Diet and Study.

A Vassar girl, not long ago, cramming for her examinations, sent down an order to the refectory for strong tea and cracked ice. It was her freshman year, or she would never have done it, a proper diet being one of the important matters in that admirable institution. At the Woman's college in Baltimore a glance at the food contracts for the nine months of study is interesting. It takes eleven tons of beef, three and one-half of mutton, two of pork and four of poultry to satisfy the healthy young appetites of the 200 students in the meat line alone. There are, besides, 3,600 dozens of eggs, two and one-half tons of butter, five of sugar and one and one-half of crackers to be disposed of.

Pie for Milly.

At one of the quiet summer hotels in the Adirondack region a husband and wife attracted by their pleasant manner the liking of the waiter detailed at the table. Madam, like a true American, called for a little more of some particularly nice pie, whereupon her husband rebuked her jocosely in his care for her health. "No, no, Milly," he said; you have had quite enough pie for your good." "Never you mind him, Milly," said Elanathan, the waiter, leaning over her chair, a perfect mass of sympathy: "you kin hev all the pie ther is. Here's a hull one."

YOUR GOOD HEALTH,
 if you're a suffering woman, demands Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. There's no other medicine like it, for women's peculiar ills. No matter how distressing your symptoms, it relieves your aches and pains, and if faithfully used will bring a permanent cure in every chronic weakness or derangement, in catarrhal inflammation, and in the displacements of women. West Liberty, O.
 Dr. R. V. Pierce: Dear Sir—I can cheerfully recommend your valuable medicine, the "Favorite Prescription," to suffering females. Three years ago my health became so poor that I was scarcely able to help with the household duties. I was persuaded to try your medicine, and I purchased six bottles. That with the local treatment you advised, made me strong and well. My sister has used it in the family with like results.

JAMES ENNIS' PIG AN EXPENSIVE ONE

KEPT A BLIND ONE AND IT
COST $100.

Upon the Promise to Do Better, All
Previous Sins Were Forgiven, So
He Paid Up His Fine and Left—
Ambulance Called Needless Last Night—City News.

JAMES F. ENNIS will no longer be a terror to the temperance people of Orfordville if he keeps the promise he made to Judge Phelps this afternoon. Ennis was arrested by Officer Cochrane on charge of violating the excise laws; entered a plea of "guilty" and made a strong plea for clemency, there being several similar charges against him. He promised that he would not again sell liquor or allow it sold in his building so the court convicted him, and sentenced him to pay a fine of $100 and costs. District Attorney Wheeler stated that so long as Ennis kept the promise he would not prosecute or allow prosecution for any offense of a similar kind committed by Ennis up to and including December 5, 1894. Ennis thereupon paid the fine of $100 and costs, $3.48.

They called out the fire police wagon last night to pick up a man who was supposed to be dead, and he was dead. Peter Johnson was his name and he was picked up on North Franklin street and taken to Dr. Whiting's office. Johnson was insensible at the time, and his appearance indicated that he had been severely injured about the head. It did not take Dr. Joe Whiting many minutes to discover that Johnson was almost dead drunk, and that his injuries were but slight. Johnson and his brother came to town last evening and bowed up. Starting for home they got into a fight about driving and Peter was thrown or tumbled out of the wagon, receiving a slight cut on his face. He was put into his wagon and sent home.

UNFORTUNATELY there is no one word that expresses anything satisfactory in a diamond. The size, color, cut and quality, all must be given an intelligent consideration. A. F. JUDGE BENNETT HOLDS COURT
AT NIGHT.

Attorney Mahoney Advances Arguments Why the Election Last September Should Be Declared Void—Decision To Be Given in Open Court—Appeal To Be Taken.

There was a night session of the circuit court last night—the first in years. That session made it very uncertain whether Janesville saloon men will pay $500 for license next year. In fact the indications were that the fee will be the same as at present, $200, despite the fact that the people at the special election in September voted for $500, giving that sum a large majority. The election was contested by the saloon men, and it is now believed that the election will be declared void on account of irregularities.

Soon after the election the saloon men held a meeting and decided to test the validity of the election. For this purpose they employed Attorney J. L. Mahoney to take charge of their case. After investigating the matter fully Attorney Mahoney commenced proceedings before Judge Bennett. Last evening at Judge Bennett's home on Milton avenue the matter was argued by Attorney Mahoney for the saloon men and by City Attorney McElroy for the city. At the conclusion of the argument Judge Bennett intimated very strongly that he would be compelled to declare the election irregular and void, and that it would be set aside. Attorney Mahoney's strong point was on account of the irregularity of the whole election. In the first place he contended that the notice of the election was only published in two of the three daily papers in the city, the law requiring publication in all the daily papers; that the ballots were irregular, in that the Australian ballot was not used, but instead three different kinds of ballots; one for $200, one for $350 and one for $500. It appears the election was called and conducted under the provisions of an old law, and no particular attention was paid to the new election laws. Judge Bennett reserved his opinion, saying he would announce it some time this week in open court.

No matter which way Judge Bennett may decide this case, it will go to the supreme court. The saloon men will take an appeal in case they are beaten, and the same course will be taken by the city.

COUNTY SEWER IS FINISHED.

The Connections Are All There Is Left To Be Done.

The sewer at the county insane asylum, running from the building into Rock river, will be completed this evening, except the connections at the building and at the river. The iron pipe running into the river was lowered into place this afternoon and the connections will probably be completed at both ends by tomorrow.

Some Progress.

It being made in our East River Park plans. Our house is up, as you can see if you go out there. The barn will be ready before the wagonettes are finished, and by January 15, we hope that our line from that beautiful home section of the city to the postoffice, will be making its regular half hourly trips. There are most certainly no lots in Janesville for the price that will compare in value with East River Park homesites. Within one year from now any lot bought at our present price, will bring the buyer $100 profit. Will it not be well for you to be one of the fortunate purchasers? The year 1895 is going to be a lively one in our various additions. There are at this time not less than ten new homes projected and all of them are beautiful homes. It seems to us that if you are thinking of building this coming year you ought to look these lots over. If you want to invest a small amount where it will pay by increase in value three times as fast as an interest investment this is the place to do it.

There is lots more to say on this property and from time to time we shall say it.

GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

"RINGER" CAN TROT ONCE MORE

JOEJYN or RATHER J. R., Who Was Raced Here Is Reinstated.

Janesville horsemen well remember Joejyn, the ringer that was raced upon the Janesville track a year or so ago and was expelled from the turf. The matter came before the association at the annual meeting at Chicago in the form of an application from C. M. Taylor of Philadelphia, Pa., for reinstatement from expulsion of the bay gelding J. R. alias Joejyn. Application for reinstatement was made on the ground that the net winnings of the horse should be applied to the discharge of the indebtedness against him for the unlawful winnings obtained under the name of Joejyn. Upon the payment of $50 the president granted temporary reinstatement and it was afterward ordered that the application be granted and the temporary reinstatement ordered by the president be made permanent.

HANTHORN DENIES SELLING STONE

Laughs at the Story in the Morning Paper Concerning Him.

Street Commissioner George Hanthorn laughed heartily when he read the story in the morning paper charging him with selling city stone.

"I never gave permission to any one to take the stone from the Sexton lot," said he; "I did tell one party, however, that they must go to Alderman McLean to get them. Perhaps I made a mistake in naming the wrong man."

MAY MAKE THE LICENSE $1000

Talk of an Amendment to the Law to That Effect.

The announcement that the saloon men would probably be successful in setting aside the verdict of the people, placing the license at $300, has started an agitation to amend the law at the present session of the legislature, making the minimum fee $1,000. There is already talk of getting up a petition with this end in view.

THE LARGEST HOSPITAL.

Four Thousand Beds Are Constantly Occupied by Patients.

What is doubtless the largest hospital benevolent and free school combined is in Turin, Italy. It is called the Cottolengo, and is three stories high in the form of a St. Andrew's cross. It has 5,000 beds, over 4,000 being constantly occupied.

The connecting wing, forming the street front, contains the operating, waiting and other rooms. Numerous pavilions, cottages, school houses and workshops occupy the grounds, separated by small but well kept gardens and yards, giving plenty of air and light and adding cheerfulness to the conglomerate of stone structures. The whole being scrupulously clean, a pleasing, homelike effect is secured.

Sixty years ago a poor monk, named Cottolengo, founded this institution on money solicited by begging. Its support is still obtained in this manner and by private, mostly anonymous, contributions from one day to another. No sick asking for treatment nor any healthy person needing shelter have ever been refused admittance. If the latter is in extreme poverty and wants work and cannot get it outside, it is given him here. Homeless boys and girls receive free schooling. They learn how to read and write, knitting, sewing, embroidery or a trade. So do men and women, the trades of carpenter, shoemaker, tailor, printer, bookbinder, baker and gardener being practically taught.

The more skilled laborers are placed in the repairing department. There is constant work for the hospital, also work to fill orders coming from outside. Deaf mutes, the blind, incurables, idiots, fallen women and picked-up children are taken in and cared for. Anyone needing a roof over his head, so long as he is poor and destitute and not a criminal, gets a welcome home here, provided he is willing to work in exchange for shelter and a good meal.

The Cottolengo is a city in itself, managed by a board of business men and physicians, ministered to by a priest and attended by a sisterhood. The question, however, whether the applicant be a Catholic or not, has never yet been raised.

POLICEWOMAN GOT MARSHAL TEETER

QUITE A STORY OF THE CLINTON OFFICER.

Warrant, They Say, Was Based on a Grand Jury Indictment, and Was Served by Mrs. Ames, Wife of the Belvidere Sheriff Who Once Caught a Crook Here.

There was more to the story of the arrest by a woman of Marshal James Teeter of Clinton at Belvidere if reports are true, than were hatched at the first setting. It seems that Teeter's arrest was the result of his indictment by a grand jury for levying on horse power for a hay pressing machine which was abandoned by its owner and seized by a man to whom he was indebted, to satisfy the claim. Teeter was arrested by the wife of the Belvidere sheriff, Mrs. Ames, who has made quite a reputation as an officer. Teeter had hardly planted his foot in the town before she had arrested him and, more than that, locked him up herself. Teeter notified Clinton friends and he was bailed out but that matter will come before the court at a coming term.

Mrs. Ames is no green hand at police work. Janesville people will well remember her last visit to this place. She was then in pursuit of a crook whom she had located here and she got him too. The chase had been a long one but the man had stolen her gold watch while he was in jail there, and after she had treated him very kindly and she said she would have followed him to the ends of the earth. On another occasion she visited Janesville as the commander of the Belvidere Woman's Republican club, which organization took part in the procession during the big Blaine and Logan demonstration here.

BROWN BROS. & LINCOLN.

His Idea Cost Him $50.

Arthur E. Fowler of Lynn, Massachusetts, pleaded guilty in the United States district court to the charge of using the United States mails in a scheme to defraud. He was arrested some time ago for advertising in the newspapers stating that he would send a lady, on receipt of ten cents, a new improvement as a substitute for the obnoxious hat pin. When he received the money he inclosed in an envelope two small rubber bands, with instructions to fasten one end of a rubber to the hat and then pull it under the ear. After the facts were stated by United States Assistant District Attorney John H. Casey to Judge Nelson he fined Fowler $50 and the costs of prosecution.

Breakers Ahead!

Prudence, foresight, that might have saved many a good ship that has gone to pieces among the breakers, is a quality "conspicuous by its absence" among many classes of invalids, and among none more notably than persons troubled with inactivity of the kidneys and bladder. When these organs fall off in any grievous trouble is to be apprehended Bright's disease, diabetes, catarrh and stone in the bladder, are among the diseases which a disregard of early symptoms contraindicate and render fatal. That signally effective diuretic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will—and let no one so troubled forget this—remedy the symptoms of approaching renal disease and check its further progress. Equally efficacious is the Bitters for constipation, liver complaint, malarial and rheumatic trouble and debility.

Wanted a Sample of Cash.

A large London firm of tea merchants advertised in various journals that they would send samples of their tea to anyone applying for same. One morning they were surprised to find the following letter among their correspondence: "Gents: I see that you offer to send samples of your tea to any one applying for them. Now, I do not at present require any tea, but if you would be kind enough to send me half a sovereign on approval for a few days, I should esteem it a favor."

A Business Finder.

Cobwebs—How do you find business? Rustle—Advertise for it, of course. —READ THE HEARTY INDORSEMENTS OF "MAIL ORDER" CUSTOMERS.—

Milton, Wis., Nov. 20, 1894.
I received the $10.00 suit all O. K. and in good time. Like it very well. Everybody that looks at it prices it at $30 to $25. I think it the cheapest suit of clothes I ever bought in my life.
H. L. WRIGHT.

Brodhead, Wis., Nov. 20, 1894.
The suit ordered from you and which was received in good time, is a marvel, considering price. The suit was for my father and I took measurements according to your instructions and when he donned them he pronounced them a perfect fit. Could not have been better had a tailor taken his measure and had them fitted on him. He is more than pleased. Sent samples of heavy w light overcoats.
J. F. SPENCER.

The goods ordered from you came to hand O. K., and I must say they are cheapest and best I ever bought. You certainly handle the best goods for the money I ever bought, and whenever I can speak a word of recommendation for your house will cheerfully do so.
JOHN L. ECOTT.

Clinton Junction, Wis., Nov. 23, 1894.
The suit of clothes I ordered for my boy last week arrived all right, also presents for the boy. I am glad to tell you the suit was the best I ever bought for the money. I left it all to you as regards color, etc., and am sure your selection was a most excellent one. If the suit had been measured by an expert it could not fit better. I don't see how you can make clothes like those you sent me for the money. I shall recommend you for promptness to all my neighbors.
MRS. MARGARET KESSLER.

Sharon, Wis., Oct. 12, 1894.
Suit came and I am very much pleased, both in quality and fit. It is a very cheap suit indeed, and looks much better than I expected.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 14, 1894.
The second suit ordered of your house arrived promptly giving entire satisfaction as to quality of goods, etc. The fit is perfect. I do not understand how you can sell boys' suits at such low prices. The same suits would cost twice as much in this city. Send samples and prices of boys' overcoats.

Our Great Cost Sale Will Continue During December

Why will reasonable merchants do this thing during the assured busy season preceeding the holidays. The people would like to know. Our competitors explains it on Tariff lines explaining to you that the reason we are selling goods so cheap is due to the Wilson bill, (they do not deny that we are selling stuff cheap) and do not meet our prices but simply explain it as a result of the tariff. Another one throws out insinuating remarks about our goods and while he watches us hammer down the prices, he spends his spare moments throwing great handful of mud at us in the shape of "awful funny" little locals (you ought to read them, it would do us good.)

= And Now We Will Explain =

IT IS SIMPLY THIS:--We have promised the people of this community to sell dry goods cheaper than any other merchant, AND WE ARE GOING TO DO IT. We own about $60,000 worth of New Dry Goods bought within the past 90 days for cash. These goods are bought from 15 to 33 1-3 per cent less than they could have been bought one, two or three years ago and now with this tremendous advantage we propose to make our promises good and sell you

Dry Goods Cheaper Than Any Other Concern.

We did it all the spring. We did it all the summer. We did it all the fall. We will do it ALL Winter, (mind that now. Remember EVERY ITEM GOES AT COST. Remember, we are the merchants who have brought about these low prices for the people. Remember, we are going to stand right by our promises and sell you dry goods the Cheapest.
